

Max McCarthy

---

Rutgers University
Graduate Program in Ecology & Evolution
14 College Farm Rd | New Brunswick, NJ 08901 USA
max.w.mccarthy@rutgers.edu

POSITIONS

Rutgers University, New Brunswick

Ph.D, Graduate Program in Ecology & Evolution, (2020-present)

Advisor: Rachael Winfree

EDUCATION

Tufts University

BS, Biology and Environmental Studies, 2020

GRANTS & FELLOWSHIPS

Presidential Fellowship, Rutgers University Graduate School-New Brunswick - $75,000 - 2020-present

Dean's Fellowship, Rutgers University Graduate School-New Brunswick - $25,000 - 2020-present

Benjamin G. Brown Scholarship - $1,750 - 2020

Barry Goldwater Scholarship - $7,500 - 2019

Thomas Harrison and Emily Leonard Carmichael Prize Scholarship - $1,295 - 2019

Nelson Family Summer Scholar Fund - $5,500 - 2019

Albert N. Votaw Memorial Summer Internship - $5,500 - 2018

PRESENTATIONS

McCarthy, M. Phenological trends in wild bees with diverse life history traits. Senior Honors Thesis Defense, Tufts University, Medford, MA; Highest Honors. Apr. 29, 2020.

McCarthy, M. Phenological trends in wild bees with diverse life history traits. Tufts Summer Scholars Conference, Tufts University, Medford, MA. Aug. 8, 2019.

McCarthy, M. Phenological shifts in bees with varying life history traits in the genus Colletes. Northeast Natural History Conference, Springfield, MA; Student Poster Presentation First Place Award. Apr. 13, 2019.

McCarthy, M. Relationship between floral abundance and pollen collection in two solitary bees. Tufts REU Symposium, Tufts University, Medford, MA. Aug. 3, 2018.

McCarthy, M. Phenological and distributional shifts in bees with varying life history traits in the genus Colletes. Independent Research Talk, Tufts University: Medford, MA. Dec. 11, 2018.

SERVICE & OUTREACH

Tufts Pollinator Initiative; founding member (March 2019-May 2020)

National Audubon Society Christmas Bird count; count sector leader for Andover, MA (2016-present)

Massachusetts Audubon Society Joppa Flats Education Center; volunteer naturalist (2012-present)

Trustees of Reservations Ward Reservation Bird Survey (2017)

Andover Village Improvement Society/Andover Conservation Commission; project volunteer (2014-2016)

Massachusetts Audubon Society Ipswich River Wildlife Sanctuary; volunteer naturalist (2013-2015)